

Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

This statement is made on behalf of Bridgeway Security Solutions Ltd. (“Bridgeway”) pursuant to Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the “Act”) and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement.

Introduction

Bridgeway strives to act ethically and with integrity in all of our business dealings and relationships. Bridgeway is committed to improving practices to combat modern slavery and human trafficking.

Our Approach

We always work to the highest ethical standards and comply with all laws, regulations and rules relevant to our business. Our reputation is paramount and we take our Corporate and Social Responsibilities very seriously.

We realise that our relationships with those we deal with, whether customers, employees or suppliers, are key to our success and as such we take our obligations and commitments to our partners very seriously.

We expect the same high standards from those we work with and we are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

Supplier Adherence

As part of our supply chain assessment process, we conduct annual Modern Slavery and Ethics surveys to measure our suppliers’ compliance against the Act. In particular, suppliers are required to confirm that no slavery is used in their business and supply chain, and that all necessary processes and policies are in place to prevent this.

Further Steps

Bridgeway staff attend annual mandatory policy training, which includes training specifically on our Modern Slavery and Ethics policy. Bridgeway is committed to reviewing and updating the policy and associated training as and when required.
